

---

Agenda of the European Association of the Schools of Political Studies

---

10 March, 2010: Meeting of Directors

The meeting, held at the Council of Europe in Strasbourg, brought together the Directors of the Schools of Political Studies, the Association's President, Catherine Lalumière, and Secretary General, Jack Hanning. The preparation of the 2010 Summer University for Democracy and the future development of the Schools Network were on the meeting agenda. Nevena Crljenko, Director of the Academy for Political Development in Croatia was appointed Network co-ordinator to achieve a common approach by the Schools in the Association.

27 June, 2010: General Assembly of the Association

The day before the 2010 Summer University for Democracy opens, the Annual General Meeting of the European Association of the Schools of Political Studies will take place with Catherine Lalumière in the chair. Members will examine the Association's annual report and elect a new Board. They will also discuss the need for a communication strategy and the planning of fund raising for future activities.