SCHOOLS OF POLITICAL STUDIES AT THE WORLD FORUM FOR DEMOCRACY

■ The Secretariat of the Schools of Political Studies warmly welcomes the 500 participants from the nineteen Council of Europe Schools of Political Studies who are here in Strasbourg for this Second World Forum for Democracy.

■ The Forum intends to be a place where you – Europe’s emerging democratic leaders – are exposed to cutting-edge ideas and first-rate discussion on issues relating to democracy. At the same time, built into the architecture of the Forum, is the ambition and space to hear about your experiences and address your questions on the topics under review. We encourage you to share your knowledge, thereby making this event a mutual learning experience.

■ This programme of special events for the Schools of Political Studies includes information on:

- the regional meetings to discuss an issue significant to that region;
- the Diploma Ceremony and the family photograph;
- the Democracy Innovation Fair;
- the timetable of visits to the European Court of Human Rights;
- Schools’ participants present in Strasbourg to facilitate inter-School networking.

■ We look forward to meeting with you over the next few days. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact us (see contact details on the back page).
